Dear

Mr. Jackson has received your letter of February 6, 1951 and has asked me to make a reply since he will be out of the city for the next few days.

Our Personnel people have advised me that we have no vacancies at this time for an individual with your qualifications. However, your application will be retained in the active file and should a vacancy occur that would be suitable for you, you will of course be contacted immediately.

I regret that this reply has been delayed, however, it was necessary in order that your application could be again reviewed.

Sincerely,

Signed
